

Rebecca WARREN

Inspector for Central Disruption Team for the British Transport Police (BTP)

<http://www.btp.police.uk>

Biography:

Becky Warren is Inspector for Central Disruption Team for the British Transport Police (BTP) and has been an officer with the BTP for over 25 years. She began her career as a Constable and Sergeant at Brighton. Having worked in the Strategic Development Department and then as a Line Inspector on the Piccadilly Line, she now leads a team who look at how BTP manage railway fatalities and disruption related matters and leads on level crossing issues for the force including oversight of the Mobile Safety Vehicles.

Title of presentation: Enforcement at level crossings in the UK

Summary:

Presentation will introduce BTP, summarise what enforcement takes place and outcomes such as the Driver Awareness Course or attendance at Court. Followed by Case studies of some driving offences with videos and results. Concluding with what other activity is undertaken to educate drivers before offending.